Proof of Meeting in Past Two Years

You must provide evidence that you and your fiancée have personally met within two years of the date this petition was filed. While there is no official list of items that will be accepted as proof of meeting, the following is a list of items that are generally accepted by the USCIS.

Do not send originals. Instead, make photocopies of your evidence. For smaller items such as boarding passes or train ticket stubs, tape them to a standard sheet of paper and then copy the paper.

→ Passport Stamps: This is critical proof that you traveled to your fiancée's country or that your fiancée came here. You may have difficulty if you don't include this evidence. Make sure the date is legible on the stamps. You must also include a copy of the passport data page (the one with your name and picture). Color copies are best if possible.

→ Airplane Boarding Passes: (Optional) This shows that you actually got on the airplane.

→ Photographs: Gather 5 or 6 recent color photos of you and your fiancée together. Tape them to a standard sheet of paper or place them in a zip lock bag. If your photos are digital, reduce them to standard size like 4x6 and print two-each to a page. Photos showing you with your fiancée's family are a good choice. Write the date and place on each picture along with the names of the individuals in the photo. You almost certainly will not get these pictures back. There are no hard-fast rules here. If you don't have 5 photos, send whatever you have. It will be difficult to get the visa if you don't have these photographs. The maximum number of photos is 10.

→ Hotel Receipts: (Optional) These alone don't prove that you met your fiancée but they do help show that you spent time in the vicinity.

→ Anything else you feel proves that you and your fiancée have met in the last two years.

Make sure each piece of evidence is labeled, highlighted or annotated in some way. You want the Consulate to quickly understand what he or she is looking at. How much evidence you need depends on how solid your evidence is. Organization is important. Make sure you evidence is easy to read. Only use one side of the page.

Remove this page and replace with your evidence.
